Help give our children (and yourself) space to play, learn and grow.

With your help, everything you loved as a child—baseball on hot summer days, running barefoot through the park, playing basketball or even learning to dance—is assured to be available to all of us.

Simply put, providing the kinds of parks, recreation facilities and programs the people of Boulder want the most often costs more than the city can afford. This is why the Boulder Parks and Recreation Foundation (BPRF) needs your help.

What is the Boulder Parks and Recreation Foundation?

It's a nonprofit organization that provides opportunities for individuals and organizations to support parks and recreation in Boulder, and give us all the wonderful experiences that make us glad to call Boulder our home. Your dollars go toward enhancing these open spaces, facilities and programs—and, in turn, help build a stronger community.

Become a BPRF member!

Support our efforts and give back to an important cause. Visit the BPRF website at www.boulderprf.org, write us at

Acknowledgment of Risk & Model Release

We want the registrants in our program to be aware that when they participate in certain activities, there is a natural element of risk of injury which each participant must assume.

As a loss prevention measure and risk management standard, participants are required to sign an Acknowledgment of Risk form for certain classes and activities. If a participant is under 18 years of age, the signature of a parent or legal guardian is necessary. Photographs, digital images, or videotape of program participants and spectators may be used for future promotional or marketing material. Thank you for your cooperation.
